

Announcing the 2012 William L. Boyd National Educational Politics Workshop Graduate Student and Recent Doctoral Graduate Registration

The Politics of Education Association and the University Council for Educational Administration invite graduate students and recent doctoral graduates to participate in the annual William L. Boyd National Educational Politics Workshop, a 2 1/2-hour workshop held in conjunction with AERA. Named in honor of the late Dr. William Lowe Boyd, the workshop gives emerging scholars the opportunity to learn about current and promising research in the politics of education field, participate in break-out sessions, and interact with leading politics of education scholars in their areas of interest.

When/Where: The workshop is tentatively scheduled for April 13th, 2012 from 2:30-5:00 pm at a location convenient to the AERA conference hotels in Vancouver, British Columbia (We are only waiting on AERA's confirmation of date and time).

Eligibility: All students with an interest in educational politics and currently enrolled in graduate schools in the U.S. or abroad are welcome to attend as are educational researchers who earned their doctoral degrees after March 1, 2010.

Cost: There is no fee to attend, but participants must provide for their own travel and housing arrangements in Vancouver.

Registration: If you are interested in attending the 2012 William L. Boyd National Educational Politics Workshop in Vancouver, British Columbia please complete the online application form at the following website:
